6. Approval of Meeting Minutes: March 9, 2010 & April 13, 2010

The April minutes were approved unanimously and the March minutes were approved with changes.

7. Reports

Planning Board: Joe Pacera reported on the current and upcoming projects of the planning board.

Historic Preservation Commission: Those present discussed how there already was an informal meeting with the Historic Preservation Commission, eliminating the need for a scheduled joint meeting in the future.

Mullica Hill Pond Committee: Those present discussed the success of the cleanup day. It was suggested the new bridge have a stone veneer. It was also suggested that the wall in the lower Naples parking lot be capped with the same veneer as it is in disrepair and was installed by the state.

Mullica Hill Merchants' Association: It was discussed that a congratulatory card should be sent to the recipients of a Best of Gloucester County award.

Harrison Township Beautification Committee: The social was a success.

8. Ongoing Projects

Benches: Members expressed dissatisfaction with the choice of benches. Catalogs for benches were discussed. The benches near the Cherry Hill Wegmans were discussed favorably. The bench of choice should be picked within one week, approved by the Historic Preservation Commission, distributed to others to review, and purchased.

Tom Sanders agreed to contact the bench distributor for material samples, and also suggested contacting the New Jersey Main Street Program and County Procurement Offices for standard benches.

Planters: Discussed during the beautification meeting.

Parking Signs for Downtown: Tabled for next meeting.

EDC Secretary Search: The EDC welcomed Ellen McGeoch as the temporary secretary. An advertisement will be placed in the Gloucester County Times.

9. New Business

The Township Committee requested feedback on the Economic Development Committee Ordinance from the Economic Development Committee which was discussed in May. The Township Committee should contact Niki Trunk who attended the May meeting.

10. Approval of Meeting Minutes: April 13, 2010

11. Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 9:00 PM.
